NEW YORK, June 14.- The financial situation at large presented an un-changed appearance in the light of this Washington Title. morning's news. No alteration whatever appeared in the anthracite coal strike situation, and the weather news from the Western wheat and corn growing States continued highly satisfactory. The weekly reports of the mercantile agencies setting forth the condition of the country's trade were highly encouraging, and showed virtually no reflection of the cessation of industry in the anthracite coal regions. The London Stock Norfalk & Washington Market was exceedingly dull, and American stocks were shown at fractional declines, in comparison with the local final prices of yesterday. The operations in this market for foreign account continued, however, upon a trifling scale. Interest in Few Stocks.
